

Narrative 6th Grade

What is a character? A protagonist?

What is a setting?

What is pacing?

What happens to engage and orient the reader?

What is an inciting incident, or story kick off?

What is an event sequence or plot?

What makes events unfold naturally and logically?

What does it mean that characters respond to situations?

What are precise words and phrases, relevant descriptive details, and sensory language that convey experiences and events?

What are transition words, phrases, and clauses to convey sequence and signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another?

What does it mean to provide a conclusion that follows from narrated experiences?

How do characters respond after the story ends?